The prettiest campaign badge received at this office this summer came last night in the mail from Chicago. It is a Democratic, a photographic bandana, with the portraits of Cleveland and Thurman bound in silver and surmounted by a silver rooster, the whole business having a pin on the back to attach the badge to the coat or vest. On the Illinois coat about the same time came a man with two zip coons, for Republican headquarters, who says if that rooster was in the flesh, one of his Republican coons would make him look mighty sick.

After nearly three months of effort, A. Gibbons, an experienced accountant, and county clerk Trenchard have succeeded in getting a succinct report of the county's financial condition and yesterday submitted it to the county court, it being approved. The preparation of such a report, running back, as it does, to 1882, involves an exhaustive and elaborate overhauling of all the county business. Among other pleasant little items of the work, is the counting and entering of about 13,000 separate county warrants according to the report. The present indebtedness of this county, to date, is about $55,000.

A visit to the John Day's region shows considerable being done in the way of cultivation and improvement. On seeing the growth on such a place as Howell Lewis's, for instance, the first thought that strikes one is why anyone in Clatsop county who can get hold of an acre of its soil should ever allow any talk of "hard times" to worry him. Here on the tide land, is oats that stand over six feet high, and which, harvested as hay, will go, as experience proves, six tons to the acre—fully equal to $20 a ton hay imported from California, and vastly superior to the straw that comes from our sister state and which is sold at that figure. On the higher ground of Mr. Lewis's place are raised potatoes—300 bushels to the acre—at 1 cent a pound, this means $180 for an acre's yield. His is only one of hundreds. The fact is there is such a profusion of resources and natural yield in this country that it is overwhelming. There was once a donkey who starved to death between two bundles of fine hay, because he couldn't make up his mind which bundle to tackle first. A man that goes around crying about hard times when soil to be had for the asking is waiting to be tickled with a hoe that it may laugh with a harvest of profit, is a suggestive parallel.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The county court met yesterday, present Hon. C. H. Page, judges J. G. Nurnberg and F. W. Smith, commissioners: W. G. Ross, sheriff, and C. J. Trenchard, clerk.

Special report of A. Gibbons received, examined and approved. In the matter of the delinquent tax list return, examined and clerk instructed to make new delinquent tax list and issue alias warrant on same, clerk to tabulate same.

In the probate court, petition of Wm. Tagg, for letters of administration on Enos Rowland's estate, granted.

Bill of A. Gibbons, and Mrs. N. Weiman allowed. Adjourned.

Bad Times in Eastern Oregon.

It is said by parties who have visited that section that they have not a single crop worth harvesting on the road between Echo and Lexington, and that dire discouragement stares farmers in the face. Some are selling fanners and improvements for what they can get, and others are leaving everything. The situation is indeed a gloomy one.—East Oregonian.

UNWELCOME IMMIGRANTS.

Discharged Criminals Assisted To This Country.

(SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.)

NEW YORK, July 28.—Steve Brodie, the bridge jumper and Bowery saloon keeper and the Albany girl whom he is accused of abducting were arraigned at the Tombs to-day. The girl's mother, Mrs. Laura Ford, of Albany, was present and admitted that the girl was 16 years old. The charge of abduction therefore fell through. It was then decided to hold the girl as an incorrigible. While waiting the removal of the girl to the house of mercy, she made a desperate but unsuccessful attempt to plunge a knife into her breast. Had not a policeman caught her arm she would have succeeded. The girl remarked defiantly: "Well, either I will be allowed to go with Steve or I will do it yet."

Brodie and she had been living together for a week. He asserts that they would have been married had it not been for the recent death of his wife.

ONE KIND OF IMMIGRATION.

NEW YORK, July 28.—When the four congressmen who are investigating the emigration affairs of the country assembled to-day, Paul Wolff, the Washington correspondent of the New York Staats Zeitung, took the witness stand and stated that some years ago he was informed that there were several societies in Germany and especially in Bavaria formed for the purpose of sending discharged criminals to this country. The witness laid this information before the assistant secretary of state and that gentleman wrote to the American consul at Munich on the subject who replied in December 1885 that there were no such societies.

The witness then read extracts from the reports of one of these societies showing that in 1883 twenty-seven discharged convicts were sent to this country by societies. The report said that the worse that the men are and the larger families they have, the better they are to send to America. The witness said the societies are not government affairs but the royal counselor Bouer is president and prince regent Luitold is honorary president of one society.

In 1886 their report is more cautiously worded but it shows that out of 1,500 marks expended nearly half was used to assist emigrants to come to America.

FIRE IN PORTLAND.

A Portland "Journalist" Charged With Blackmail.

(SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.)

PORTLAND, July 28.—Jonathan Tice's excelsior and shoddy factory on the white house road, was burned this morning; loss fifteen thousand dollars; no insurance.

CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL.

C. H. Melnsacs, author of the recent work "Haut Ton," and a young newspaper man well known here, was arrested this evening, on a charge of attempted blackmail of Mrs. Dr. Murray. She states that he claimed that he represented the Daily News and that he demanded fifteen hundred dollars with the threat that if this amount was not paid the News would publish an article derogatory to Mrs. Murray's character. This conversation was heard by five witnesses who were concealed.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown,—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc.—You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

Startling News From Nebraska.

By an exchange from Hastings, Nebraska of July 13, we learn that hundreds of people perished miserably in a blinding storm of snow and ice. Owing to the intense heat of two weeks previous, the people were unprepared for the worst storm ever experienced in that state. The thermometer fell one hundred and twenty-five degrees inside of two hours. The snow was eight feet deep in the streets. It was impossible for any one to be out with out perishing in short time. The storm lasted about five hours and proved very destructive.—West Side Telephone, 27.

A FATAL RACE.

Randall's Condition—A Stage Robbed.

(SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.)

SARATOGA, New York, July 28.—In the fifth race to-day, a sleight of hand, "Warrington" the favorite, fell at the first hedge and rolled over Morris, his rider. The man and horse lay unconscious for some moments, after which the horse rose and slowly dragged his unconscious rider a few feet by the reins which were wrapped around the man's hands. Morris was a gentleman rider, and is fatally injured.

His back is believed to be broken. "Beechmore" won by half a length; "Abraham" second; "Killarney third," no time. "Warrington's" back is injured.

Mr. Morris is dead. His former partner a Mr. Harwood was killed at Sheephead last fall.

RANDALL BETTER.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Samuel J. Randall and his family left Washington this morning for their country home at Wayne station, Penn., and hope that fresh country air will have the effect of increasing the patient's strength. Randall was taken to the station in a carriage, the blinds of which were closely drawn. He was accompanied by Dr. Mahan who will attend him to his home, where Dr. Martin, who was unable on account of an engagement, will take charge of the case. Randall was feeble this morning, owing to the unusual exertions consequent upon his removal, his family is pleased with the continued improvement in his condition.

STAGE ROBBER.

REDDING, Cal., July 28.—The Redding and Big Valley stage was robbed this morning by masked men on top of Bullskin hill, twenty-five miles from Redding. The mail and express box was taken. No passengers were aboard. Dan DeForce was driving the stage, which was coming this way.

JUMPED THEIR BONDS.

The Chicago Prisoners Fail to Appear.

(SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.)

CHICAGO, July 28.—Frank Chapek and Frank Chelbourn, who with F. Kronk and Rudolph Servis were arrested charged with conspiracy to assassinate Greunell, Gary and Bonfield, have jumped their bonds. The case against Chapek, Chelbourn and Kronk had been continued by judge Alleen until to-day. The two first named gave bonds in five thousand dollars each for their appearance, but Kronk, being unable to procure bail, was locked up in the county jail. Defendants did not put in an appearance at court this morning, though inspector Bonfield was on hand to attend to his end of the case. Deputy sheriff Burk was ready in the court room with warrants for arrest on an indictment returned by the grand jury of the prisoners as soon as they should appear. It was the intention of the inspector to dismiss the cases against them the moment they were safe in the deputy's hands. When every case on the docket had been disposed and still Chapek and Chelbourn were not in court, inspector Bonfield looked a trifle uneasy. After some delay the names of the defendants were called. On their nonappearance an attorney rushed up and begged for more time. He said his name was Joseph Kapout and that he was retained by Chapek. He was granted one hour to produce them. Kapout returned at the end of the appointed time, but without them. The bondsmen are Bohemian property owners.

State School Fund Apportionment.

SALEM, July 27.—The school fund apportionment for the various counties of the state just made by State Treasurer Webb is $1.25 for every person of school age in the state, 25 cents per capita larger than any distribution ever heretofore made. In 1886 the total census of school children in the state was $2,854, and the amount of school fund per capita disbursed was 90 cents. In 1887 the census had swelled to $7,217, and the sum apportioned was $1 each. Now, in 1888, the census is $6,574. The reduction is due to the new law, which requires that the amount of school fund per capita be distributed to each child in the number of scholars in their district. Appended are the amounts apportioned to the various counties—the number of persons of school age in each county being obtainable by dividing the sum opposite each by one and one-quarter:
